A Little Bit About Ourselves

Formerly known as IGCA, AGRC is a global, non-profit, professional accreditation & certification organisation, as well as a networking platform, that was founded in 2020 and started its operations a year later.

We facilitate the exchange of knowledge and sharing of experiences among governance, risk and compliance (GRC) professionals.

We support our community of multi-jurisdictional GRC professionals in the financial services industry and beyond by sharing their common values, experiences, expertise, and business development opportunities.

Our Member's Area
